INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges:

INTRODUCTORY ALLEGATIONS

Relevant Individuals and Entities

At all times relevant to this Indictment:

1. DYNASOFT Synergy, Inc. ("DYNASOFT"), was incorporated in the State of California on or about February 17, 2009, and was wholly owned and controlled by defendant JAYAVEL "JAY" MURUGAN (MURUGAN) and one other person. MURUGAN and the other person maintained control of the DYNASOFT bank accounts.

1           10.     Beginning as early as August 2010 and continuing through in or about 2016, in the 2 Northern District of California and elsewhere, MURUGAN submitted, and aided and abetted the
3 submission of, fraudulent H-1B visa applications—including I-129 petitions and supporting
4 documents—for temporary nonimmigrant beneficiaries sponsored by petitioning company
5 DYNASOFT. These applications required the petitioner to represent to the United States, under penalty
6 of perjury and criminal and civil penalties, the true name, location, terms, and duration of the underlying
7 employment position to be filled by the stated beneficiary in each H-1B application.

8           11.     In some instances, the USCIS responded to DYNASOFT's I-129 petitions with a Request
9 for Evidence (RFE). In response to RFEs, MURUGAN procured, submitted, and aided and abetted the 10 submission of, fraudulent documents in support of the previously submitted fraudulent visa applications.

11           12.     In some instances, the beneficiary of a fraudulently obtained visa traveled overseas and 12 needed to get the visa validated in order to return to the United States. This required the beneficiary to 13 be interviewed at a U.S. consulate by a consular officer and provide documents supporting the issued 14 visa. MURUGAN procured, delivered to the beneficiaries, and aided and abetted the submission to 15 consular officers of fraudulent documents in support of visas previously issued based on fraudulent visa
16 applications.

17           13.     NAWAZ submitted and caused to be submitted to DHS, USCIS, and consular officials,
18 fraudulent documents in support of fraudulent I-129 petitions, specifically, fraudulent end-client letters
19 falsely stating that nonimmigrant workers were physically performing work at the named end-client
20 company. NAWAZ submitted fraudulent end-client letters and caused them to be submitted
21 simultaneously with the I-129 petitions, in support of pending fraudulent I-129 petitions in response to 22 an RFE, and in support of visas issued based on fraudulent I-129 petitions in cases where the beneficiary
23 traveled overseas and had to obtain a foil from a U.S. consular officer confirming the beneficiary's visa
24 was still valid.

25           14.     The end-client companies listed in the fraudulent H-1B applications and fraudulent end-
26 client letters submitted by the defendants never received the proposed H-1B workers for the positions as 27 claimed by the defendants in the I-129 petitions and supporting documents, and never intended to 28 receive those H-1B workers as claimed by the defendants.

15. The defendants, and others, caused to be submitted, and aided and abetted the submission of fraudulent documents to the United States Government in connection with H-1B applications in order to create a pool of H-1B beneficiaries who arrived or remained in the United States pursuant to the fraudulently filed and obtained H-1B visas, and who could thereafter be placed at legitimate employment positions in the Northern District of California and elsewhere. Through this scheme, DYNASOFT reaped profits and gained an unfair advantage over competing employment-staffing firms.

COUNT ONE: (18 U.S.C. § 371 – Conspiracy to Commit Visa and Document Fraud, and to Defraud the United States)

16. The factual allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 15 of this Indictment are hereby realleged and incorporated by reference as if set forth in full herein.

17. Beginning as early as August 2010, and continuing until on or about November 9, 2016, in the Northern District of California and elsewhere, the defendants,

JAYAVEL “JAY” MURUGAN,
SYED NAWAZ, and
DYNASOFT SYNERGY, INC.,

knowingly and intentionally conspired and agreed together and with each other and with other individuals both known and unknown to the Grand Jury to commit offenses against the United States, namely, to:

- knowingly use, possess, obtain, and receive a nonimmigrant visa and other documents prescribed by statute and regulation for entry into and as evidence of authorized stay and employment in the United States, knowing that the documents were procured by means of a false claim and statement, and to have been otherwise procured by fraud and unlawfully obtained, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1546(a); and
- knowingly and willfully make and use a false writing and document knowing it to contain a materially false, fictitious, and fraudulent statement, in a matter within the jurisdiction of the executive branch of the United States, specifically DHS, by signing documents containing false statements, including I-129 petitions, and creating and signing end-client letters in support of those petitions, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1001(a)(3);

and conspired to defraud the United States for the purpose of impeding, impairing, obstructing, and defeating the lawful government functions of the U.S. Department of State, DHS, and USCIS, in the oversight and enforcement of the laws relating to immigration and other federal criminal laws and regulations.

Overt Acts

18. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect the objects of the conspiracy, the following overt acts, among others, were committed in the Northern District of California and elsewhere:

- a. On or about June 10, 2011, under penalty of perjury, MURUGAN signed and submitted or caused to be submitted a fraudulent I-129 petition and supporting documentation for foreign worker H.K. to be placed at end-client company Cisco. In submitting that petition and its supporting documentation, MURUGAN falsely represented that H.K. had a job offer from Cisco when the defendant then and there knew that these representations were false.
- b. On or about November 10, 2011, MURUGAN delivered or caused to be delivered to H.K. the fraudulent end-client letter purportedly signed by NAWAZ in preparation for H.K.'s trip overseas to India. MURUGAN instructed H.K. to give it to the consular officer during H.K.'s consulate visit in India to obtain a visa foil. MURUGAN instructed H.K. to tell consular officers that she worked at Cisco even though H.K. worked for a different end-client and MURUGAN knew then and there that H.K. did not work at Cisco.
- c. On or about April 30, 2012, under penalty of perjury, MURUGAN signed and submitted a fraudulent I-129 petition for foreign worker K.K. to be placed at end-client company Cisco from October 1, 2012, through September 30, 2015. In submitting that petition and its supporting documentation, MURUGAN falsely represented that K.K. had a job offer as reflected by purchase order and service agreement documents from Cisco when the defendant then and there knew that these representations were false.
- d. On or about December 3, 2012, the U.S. Consulate in Chennai, India, requested additional information regarding the April 2012 visa petition for foreign worker K.K. On or before March 22, 2013, NAWAZ created and signed a fraudulent end-client letter in support of an I-129 petition for K.K., claiming that K.K. would be working at Cisco as an end-client company from February 2013 through at least September 2015—information that was material to the U.S. State Department and consular officials, and that NAWAZ and MURUGAN knew to be false.
- e. On or before March 22, 2013, MURUGAN submitted or caused to be submitted to the U.S. Consulate in Chennai, India, the fraudulent end-client letter signed by NAWAZ purportedly on behalf of K.K. as well as other false documentation in support of the I-129 petition filed by MURUGAN for foreign worker K.K.
- f. On or about April 16, 2012, under penalty of perjury, MURUGAN signed and submitted a fraudulent I-129 petition for foreign worker S.A. to be placed at end-client Stanford. In submitting that petition and its supporting documentation, MURUGAN falsely represented that S.A. had a job offer and contract documents from Stanford when the defendant then and there knew that these representations were false.
- g. On or about October 31, 2013, in response to S.A.'s request for additional supporting documentation to provide to the U.S. Consulate in Chennai, India. MURUGAN sent via email to S.A. a Stanford Purchase Order for a different foreign worker with the worker's name redacted (blacked out). MURUGAN intended the documents to be provided by S.A. to the U.S. State Department and consular officials, as proof of employment, information that was material to these entities and that MURUGAN knew to be false.

- 1 h. On or about November 26, 2013, NAWAZ sent via email to S.A.'s mother (who in turn
2 forwarded the email to S.A.) a letter dated October 29, 2013, that appears to be an end-
3 client letter from Stanford to the consular officers purporting that S.A. would be
4 employed at Stanford through December 2014—NAWAZ intended the end-client letter
5 to be provided by S.A. to the U.S. Consulate as proof of employment, information that
6 was material to the U.S. State Department and consular officials and that the defendants
7 knew to be false.
- 8 i. On or about December 19, 2013, after NAWAZ no longer worked at Cisco, MURUGAN
9 sent an email to Cisco employee P.P. requesting that P.P. sign end-client letters for Cisco
10 and attaching template end-client letters for visa petition beneficiaries B.P. and R.R., 11 when MURUGAN then and there knew that B.P. and R.R. did not work at Cisco and 12 were not expected at that time to work for Cisco.
- 13 j. On or about March 16, 2014, USCIS issued an RFE on V.P.D.'s visa application. On or 14 about June 6, 2014, DYNASOFT solicited an end-client letter from NAWAZ who was 15 then employed at Brocade. NAWAZ signed an end-client letter dated June 18, 2014,
16 containing false statements that foreign worker V.P.D. had a job at end-client Brocade.
17 On or about June 18, 2014, NAWAZ sent the fraudulent letter via email to a 18 DYNASOFT employee, who then emailed the letter to MURUGAN.
- 19 k. On or about July 24, 2014, MURUGAN submitted or caused to be submitted to USCIS
20 the fraudulent end-client letter signed by NAWAZ purportedly on behalf of V.P.D.
21 claiming that Brocade intended to employ (as an end-client company) V.P.D. for one year
22 with possible extensions—information that was material to DHS and other government
23 agencies and that MURUGAN and NAWAZ knew to be false.

24 All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.

25 COUNTS TWO THROUGH TEN: (18 U.S.C. §§ 1546 and 2 – Visa Fraud)

26 19. Paragraphs 1 through 15 are realleged as if fully set forth herein.

28 the defendants,

JAYAVEL "JAY" MURUGAN and DYNASOFT SYNERGY, INC.,

29 knowingly made under oath, and subscribed as true under penalty of perjury under 28 U.S.C. § 1746,
30 false statements with respect to material facts in an application, an affidavit, and a document required by
31 the immigration laws and regulations prescribed thereunder, and knowingly presented such application,
32 affidavit, and document containing such false statements, namely, by falsely representing in I-129
33 petitions and supporting documentation to DHS that the below-listed H-1B applicants had job offers
34 from and would be placed at end-client company Stanford, when the defendants knew that these 35 representations were false:
